

WESTFIELD RESIDENCE
500 KELTON AVENUE • LOS ANGELES • CA 90024

An evening of conversation with Janette Ressue

Thursday, January 14, 2010, 7:45 p.m.

VOICE ENHANCEMENT

Janette Ressue is a speech-language pathologist with 14 years of experience in transforming the lives of children and adults with a wide variety of communication, speech, language and voice disorders. Following years of travelling the U.S. and abroad, Janette relocated to Los Angeles to expand the voice disorders department at a major medical center working with many singers and performers in the entertainment industry. Janette graduated with honors from Purdue University with her Master of Science degree and worked initially with Dr. Robert Sataloff in Philadelphia, PA, a premiere otolaryngologist and opera singer. Janette is also a cellist who studied at the San Francisco Conservatory of music in her youth and toured internationally with a number of symphony orchestras.

Westfield Residence is owned and managed by the Association for Educational Development (AED), a California nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes. AED has entrusted the spiritual and doctrinal aspects of the activities it sponsors to Opus Dei, a personal Prelature of the Catholic Church. For more information about the residence, please call Melanie Lemmon at 310-208-5797 or visit the website: <http://www.westfieldresidence.org>