

WESTFIELD RESIDENCE
500 KELTON AVENUE • LOS ANGELES • CA 90024

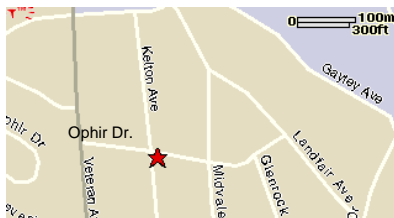

An evening of conversation with Caroline Manalo

Thursday, March 11, 2010, 7:45 p.m.

UNROLLING THE RED CARPET OF THE 2010 ACADEMY AWARDS

On March 7, 2010, the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences will present the annual Oscar awards. After the glitter has settled, Caroline Manalo, Program Coordinator for the Lights Camera Action Leadership Program (LCA) at Westfield Residence, will review the event from both filmmaker and film viewer perspectives. Join us as Ms. Manalo presents industry and cultural insights on this Hollywood affair.

Caroline Manalo received her MFA in Film and Video from Columbia College Chicago. Her experience as a media professional includes work in the advertising, public relations, and TV/film/animation/documentary production. She is currently preparing for LCA this summer to be held from June 17-24, 2010.

Westfield Residence is owned and managed by the Association for Educational Development (AED), a California nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes. AED has entrusted the spiritual and doctrinal aspects of the activities it sponsors to Opus Dei, a personal Prelature of the Catholic Church. For more information about the residence, please call Melanie Lemmon at 310-208-5797 or visit the website: <http://www.westfieldresidence.org>